Hello Everyone!

Well here I am back from New Zealand, a really great trip catching up with old friends and family, had a great time staying at a B&B called the 'Fringe of Heaven' and it truly is, I sat looking out from the top of the Titirangi ranges watching the most beautiful sunrises and sunsets, a real treat. Also got to spend some time with my family from the UK we went on a wonderful outing to the zoo while in Christchurch, my grandchildren, Son and daughter in law wanted to see a real Kiwi before they continued their travels far and wide, and blessed we were they were out and digging around for food. Have even got a photo for them to take back to the UK for sharing time at school. Plus many others of course.

Good news, our website is working really well; we are getting a number of enquiries about our little Church. The number of people that tell me they look up to see who's on and what's happening is really encouraging. Plus we have a wonderful person that is sending donations via our PayPal link to our church to help with our funds. Can I say a sincere thankyou to you from us all. We are most blessed by your gift.

I am also pleased to report that our wee Church is supporting itself fully these days and our building fund is gathering momentum. Thankyou all for your continued love and support.

Well, if I want to take this with me today I better finish and get this printed Take care ☺

A Better Place To Be

"There has never been a time on Earth like we see today. What we need are more ways to experience our interconnectedness - it is a precursor to deep love. So in this quickening light, with the dawn of each new day, let us look for love. Let us no longer struggle. Let us ever become who we most want to be. As we begin to be who we truly are, the world will be a better place."

It's a home away from home for your beloved 4 legged friend ☺

Food for Thought.....

It seems so simple that love could be the answer to so much. Most of us have spent our entire lives believing that without pain there is no gain and so even when we're told that love is the way, we brush it aside and continue on with the fight, never realizing that it is our own persistence that struggle is the only way that keeps the world in a state of turmoil and woe. Love really is the answer. And when we finally surrender to it, on that sweet day, then love with gently and effortlessly take us to that better place we long to be.

May you always be willing to be love more.
